Good things in El Malpais (Bad Country), Grants NM.

Lava formations...

Wildflowers...

Lichen...

Craters...

Looking Everywhere And Seeing Stuff Like This

Yes, our hotel is a good thing too. They are renovating the atrium. That's a good thing because it sure is crappy.

They have padlocked the pool. That's a good thing because we might have drowned. Their WiFi is really slow and hard to connect to. That's a good thing because otherwise we would probably stay in our room surfing the web and forget vacation. Their tub doesn't drain and that's a good thing because our feet stay warm while we shower (Oh man was that a stretch.) The walls are really thin. That's a good thing because we are bored and the people next door are saying really interesting stuff, like "Put the phone up to little Shelby's ear. Hi deary! Grandma's in New Mexico..."
