The sun set on our Zion visit last night.

We made it to Boulder, Utah today. Boulder, Utah is between nowhere and noplac. The Boulder Mountain Lodge is better than it looks. There are bikers upstairs. They may be better than they look too.

It has metal keys. And look at the doorknob hangy thing:

The little print at the bottom says: "Property, Bates Motel".

Which reminds me. We have seen some other interesting things at our lodgings.

Here is a new gift shop idea.

It's the Bubba Gift Shop. You never leave your room, just pick what you want. I'm wondering about pictures? bedspreads? TV's?

This was in our room in Zion.

What do the French do with these things?
Maybe that's why they won't make eye contact.

No broadband in Boulder. Gonna try the phone. This room does have a phone. Otherwise you'll get it late.
