

Date: 3/22/2009 4:06:29 AM

Subject: Postcard

---

Hello from Amarillo, Texas. Amarillo is Mexican for yellow and the city is named that for no apparent reason.

The first day of any of our road trips is always tough to report on because they mainly consist of driving through farmland to get out of Kansas and into places whose beauty and significance are less subtle. Thought you might enjoy this sign we saw in Oklahoma:

That would be Hooker, Oklahoma.

Tomorrow Palo Duro.

D&S