

Date: 4/20/2012 8:09:23 PM

Subject: Postcard

---

Heading home from Socorro. Got off I-25 in Santa Fe to take the scenic route – Espanola, Taos, Eagle Nest, Cimarron, Raton. Saw four golden eagles in, of all places, Eagle Nest. This one got harassed by a red tailed hawk until it ditched the power pole.

---

Outtakes:

---

Final story:

We went to Walmart to buy a couple things. Got in the express lane behind a woman who had 3 bananas. The checkout lady rang them up, 68¢. That was too much. The clerk pulled off a banana and set it aside, reweighed the two remaining and they were 44¢. The customer thought and thought. She then swiped her Walmart discount card which brought it down to 40¢. She thought and thought. She looked in her wallet. She asked to use her debit card, which she did – for 25¢. Then she pulled 15¢ out of the wallet. Walmart transaction completed. We were going bananas.

---

Until next time, then...

D&S