

Date: 9/16/2012 5:28:21 PM

Subject: Postscript

---

Birds play a wicked game with Murray, flying across the road right in front of the windshield, or waiting 'til the last second on the pavement before launching to safety. It's a macho thing like Running with the Bulls. We call it Flying with Murray. It was relentless this morning, so inevitably some non-descript hotdog of an avian launched right into his grill. U.S. 24 near Bloomington KS.

D&S