Somewhere in the middle of Kansas:

Got a new camera. Took a picture of a truck. Man that zoom lens sure pulls it in sharp!

Took a picture of a guy. I think the camera's OK. I think the guy's fuzzy.

Took a picture of bikers waiting for the bar to open (remember, of course, it is Sunday morning in the middle of Kansas).

This one is focused better because I found the "Shoot Through Bug Guts On Windshield" setting.

Took a picture of a train for the Hansons.

Can't read what railroad? Hah! Neither can I.

Lotta work to do.
