Today's agenda:

- 1) Do laundry (sorry no photos).
- 2) Take a Bogie Hike up Cottonwood Canyon.
- 3) Visit with a Yellow Backed Spiny Lizard.

The mighty Paria River flows through Cottonwood Canyon. Mighty as in you might see water. To get to Cottonwood Canyon you just tell Bogie to take you up some godforsaken road through some godforsaken scenery and there you are. Once you're there, not so bad.
