Trip's pretty much over.

Here are some things we saw and you didn't. Because your lives will be so much richer for having seen them, we will share.

A turkey in a tree in the fog.

Ripply mud.

Electric car charging stations at the hotel. In four days we saw one guy pull into a space. He was driving a Silverado. He made a phone call.

A real good wake rainbow.

Howard Stern Wannabe with Yoko Ono.

Merle 20 years ago.

Say trash in eleven languages.

There was a wreck somewhere.

Laughing Raven

Sheila collapses a trekking pole in front of two pit toilets.

And if you leave right now to drive up US-64 to Eagle Nest, you can still see this.
