

Date: 3/28/2017 7:22:48 PM

Subject: Postcard

It was a cold and rainy day, which was OK because it was laundry and grocery day. We laundered and grocered and felt smug about our room.

The Santa Claran Hotel and Casino in Española, New Mexico, plays the part of the Four Arrows Casino in Absaroka County, Wyoming, on the television series (everyone say it together) Longmire! We are staying here for a few days in the ever so humble Longmire Suite *on the fourth floor. It's approximately as big as our first apartment. Well, not really. It's bigger.

The price of these huge, nicely appointed rooms is slightly more than our slum in MAD-rid and almost exactly what we paid for Holiday Inn Express in Grants. And if their plan was to make their money back in the Casino, they didn't reckon on Sheila.

Crazy Money?

Sheila wins.

Buffalo Stampede?

Sheila wins.

Dragon Spin?

Sheila wins.

Vacation makes a profit?

Dale wins.

Tomorrow – hike, weather permitting.

D&S

* We call it the Longmire Suite. They call it room 409.

postcardsfromthesouthwest.com