Final Notes

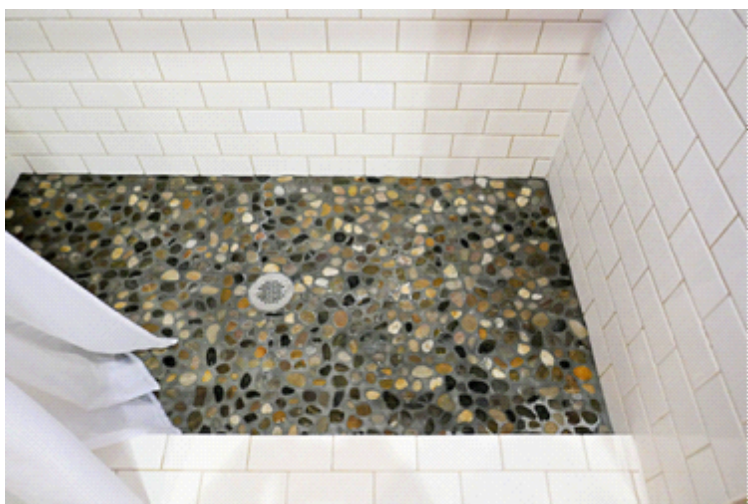

After being on the road for twelve days we had not had a great dessert. We hadn't even wiggled the needle on the Dessert-O-Meter. But last night we dined at Michael J's in Ruidoso – this is their Chocolate Torte with Chocolate Whipped Cream.

Outstanding!

Outrageous!

Outtasight!

Do not stay anywhere that has a shower floor paved in river rocks.

Do not ever let someone do this to your own shower floor.

I do not care how it looks.

Walking on rocks in bare feet is monumentally idiotic.

Are we clear on this?

We passed the Can't Stop Smokin' BBQ on the way out of town.

Worth a picture. J

Until next time,
